Interdisciplinary Aging, Public Health, and Palliative Care Certificate Program

Enhancing the Health and Social Services Workforce

Spring 2021 Program

Principal Sponsors

- Collaborative for Palliative Care
- Finger Lakes Geriatric Education Center at the University of Rochester
- Westchester Public Private Partnership for Aging Services

Program Description

This interdisciplinary workforce education and training certificate program provides generalist-level education in aging, public health and palliative care, including geriatrics and health policy and advocacy. The overarching framework of this virtual 2021 Spring course offering is public health, orienting the learning experience to the contexts and challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic. The course aims to build knowledge, capacity and generalist-level skills for those working in the aging, health and social services fields, and provides a foundational curriculum as well as elective concentrations in:

- Humanistic Leadership, Service, and Activism
- Aging, Health and Public Health Policy and Advocacy
- Geriatrics and Palliative Care
- Community-based Services
- Research to Shape Policy, Organizations, and Training

Endorsed by

- Calvary Hospital, Inc.
- International Association for Hospice and Palliative Care
- LiveWell Institute

Certificate

Non-credit bearing and non-NYS DOE-approved program; certificate documents completion and satisfaction of educational requirements of the program with a concentration.
